PRAYER

Father, You created us
You know us deep inside
You look at us and love us
You never turn aside.
You sent Your Son to be with us
So we'd never be alone,
Now Jesus, friend and brother
Come live within our home.
O bless us with your Spirit
And keep our family safe,
Help us to help each other
To grow in love and faith.

GOSPEL REFLECTION

Lord, our modern culture is ruled by envy, not generosity, and is tearing our human family apart. Our contemporaries often think that life's rewards should be calculated on the basis of work done, and as a result they are obsessed with rights:

- Forever comparing their lot with that of others;
 - Grumbling that they have done a heavy day's work in all the heat;
 - On the lookout to see if others who only work for an hour are treated the same as they are.
- Lord, we thank you for the times when you give us a glimpse of your kingdom. Invite us to enter into your generosity and set us free from the bondage of envy.

"Think twice before you say it and then say nothing at all"

This week we pray for the repose of the soul of:
Martin Keane late of Carnanes who was buried during the week.
