GOSPEL REFLECTION

Lord, forgive us for always wanting to see things:

- we have become so dependent on external stimuli;
 - we must be listening to the radio or be watching the television;
 - we need to hear sermons or read spiritual books.
- Teach us to quieten ourselves so that we may listen to our inner rhythms:
- the memories we have, both painful and happy;
 - the deep longings of our hearts;
 - the instincts of our nature.

Remind us that Jesus prayed for us that you would make your presence known to us within the truth of ourselves.

This week we pray for: Margaret Hehir late of Glen Court who was buried during the week.
