Today is Pentecost Sunday.

At the Last Supper Jesus promised His Apostles that he would send them a Paraclete who would teach them the truth. After the death of Jesus the apostles were in need of comfort and courage. They would not walk in Jerusalem in fear for their lives. All this changed on Pentecost Sunday after the descent of the Holy Spirit.

PRAYER FOR THAT WHICH IS LOST:

Saint Anthony, perfect imitator of Jesus, who received from God the special power of restoring lost things, grant that I may find {name the item} what has been lost. At least restore to me peace and tranquillity of mind, the loss of which has afflicted me even more than my material loss. To this favour, I ask another of you: that I may always remain in possession of the true good that is God. Let me rather lose all things than lose God, my supreme good. Let me never suffer the loss of my greatest treasure, eternal life with God. Amen
