ALL SAINTS, ALL SOULS

Remember those who kept the faith, who always turned to pray, Who showed the love of Jesus in their lives from day to day.

Remember those this special time, who live with God above, All Saints, All Souls, and all our own, Who live with God in love.

DIOCESAN DAY FOR REMEMBERING OUR BELOVED DEAD

November, the month of remembrance, has a particular significance this year. So many people in our communities have lived through bereavement without the usual support of community and often with the absence of family and close friends. Over two thousand families in our country have been bereaved through the coronavirus pandemic. The Irish Hospice Foundation who opened bereavement help line during the lockdown report that there is a 'tsunami of grief' in our country. On Friday 20th of November, the Diocese will celebrate a day of remembrance for all who have died this past year and especially remembering people in our country who have died because of COVID 19. This is an ecumenical day which will be celebrated by the Christian Churches in our Diocese.

This prayer may help us to find words to pray as we bless the graves of our loved ones.

God of all creation,

You are present in every place, in every moment of history, you are with us, here and now.

We believe that those we loved who are buried in this grave (speak their names) are held in your embrace.

As we sprinkle this water, (sprinkle holy water) we pray that a circle of light, happiness and peace may surround them and that they may come to the fullness of life in your presence.

We remember how their lives shaped us, their hands held us, their words inspired us, their love supported and sustained us.

Eternal God, you see face to face those we remember here.

Give us confidence that what we have loved in them is not lost, but lives on in your presence, as it does in our hearts.

Comfort us in our loss and help us to believe that one day we shall be united with them when we too shall see you, face to face.

We ask this in the name of Jesus, your Son, the first-born from the dead, who lives and reigns with you forever and ever. Amen

THOUGHT FOR THE DAY

“Rivers do not drink their own water; trees do not eat their own fruit; the sun does not shine on itself and flowers do not spread their fragrance for themselves. Living for others is a rule of nature. We are all born to help to each other. No matter how difficult it is... Life is good when we are happy;
but much better when others are happy because of you”

Pope Francis
